Eco's estates

2nd February 2009

Residential developer Eco Classic has announced that it will deliver its planned schemes

Residential developer Eco Classic has announced that it will deliver its housing schemes according to plan. H2 2009 will see the delivery of the Kępa Redłowska apartment complex in Gdynia. In June, the second stage of the Hubertus estate in Warsaw's Mokotów district will be completed.

Construction of its Trio apartment building in Warsaw will continue according to schedule, and the company is getting ready to commence work on another housing project in Gdańsk.
